WOULD-BE LEAD-PIPE THIEF KILLED BY A POLICEMAN.

Tried to Carry Away Property From Cellar of Washington Avenue Residence and Was Discovered by Officer in Waiting-Companion, Several Years Younger, Confessed When Taken Into Custody.

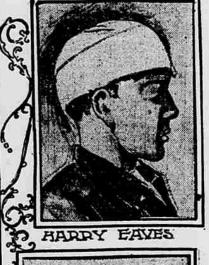

The attempt of two young mulattoes to deport a heap of lead pipe from the cellar of a house at No. 3426 Washington avenue yesterday noon, ended in the death of one who was about 20 years old, and was variously known as "John" and "Henry." The younger boy, Harry Eads of No. 2605 Wash street, is behind the bars in the Eighth District Police Station. He is 14 years old. Pistol shots at noon, when unusual quiet prevailed, brought whole families to front doors along Washington avenue. When it was reported that a white boy was shot the neighborhood became thoroughly aroused. Officer Paul Gerard did the shooting, th bullet striking the boy on the right of his back, above the diaphragm. The lad died in the City Hospital a half hour later. Officer Gerard was stationed in the basement of the house, in a closet in front. The pipe was stored against the east wall, about twenty feet distant, covered with matting. The boys entered the yard of the house at way through the yard back of No. 3424, both houses being vacant.

Getting into the yard at No. 3426, through an opening in the fence, they went into the basement. "As they came to the pipe," said Officer Gerard, "I yelled, 'Halt.' They ran towards the rear door, and I shouted again to stop. Hurrying through the door they rushed through the yard and began to climb out through a window in the coal shed. shed.

"It seemed that both of them were trying to get out at the same time. I pulled out my revolver and shot at the legs of the older boy. The bullet went high, however, and the boy fell to the ground inside the yard. Harry Eads still scrambled to get away, but he fell head first on the floor of the shed. I caught hold of him and lifted him back into the yard. Then I shot twice into the air, to summon Officers Duggan and Manning, as we had agreed.

"I discovered Saturday afternoon that the pipe had been cut, and two policemen were detailed to watch the place all night. Doors, gates and windows were left as we found them, in order not to excite suspicion. Officers Duggan and Manning answered my shots, and after they came I went along in the wagon with the boys."

S. J. Weigel, J. L. Rhodes and C. L. Pew, all residing at No. 3420 Washington avenue, were the first persons on the scene, but no one witnessed the shooting except Officer Gerard. The police hope the killing will be warning to lead-pipe thieves.

According to the admission of Harry Edas, he and his companion passed their time on the Levee and in idling. He says the dead boy told him yesterday morning of the pipe and promised him a half interest in it if he would help in carrying it

"BLIND PIG" CLOSED.

No Liquor Selling Permitted Near the Third Regiment.

Springfield, Ill., July 28.-Colonel Fisher, commanding the Third Regiment of the Illinois National Guards, has turned his attention to the "blind pigs" that have been operating near the camp. He declares that none of these places shall operate while the none of these places shall operate while the Third Regiment is in camp. In accordance with this policy, Major Coy to-day visited the refreshment stand and notified the proprietor that unless he discontinued the sale of liquors immediately, his stand would be closed and his stock confiscated. He decided to quit.

Devotional exercises were held in camp this afternoon, the entire regiment participating. Chaplain O'Dell preached a short sermon and music was rendered by the regimental band.

Governor Yates witnessed the evening parade and afterwards took dinner at general EMBROIDERED SACQUE.

Crossed With Beautiful Result.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Ill., July 28.—Evan Morton of Mayfair has a garden full of brand new spendies has been given the new flowers. It was obtained by crossing the Scotch thistile with the carnation, and it partakes of the nature of both parent stocks. The smooth stalk is that of the carnation, but more hardy. The leaf is that of the thistile. The sharp spikes of the thistile are merely suggested, and the leaf is soft to the touch. In color the centura is white and purple, a pure, lovely delicate white and a delicate lavender tinted purple.

It is about the size of a saucer, milled like and about three times the thickness of a silver dollar. On one side is an engraving of the first President, encircled with the words "George Washington, the Father of our Country, 1789," and one star. On the other, a wreath, crossed tomahawk pipes, surrounded by the letters, "Friendship pipe of peace, 1789," and twelve stars.

Mr. Jennings has had correspondence with a historical society in St. Louis in regard to the relic and it will no doubt find a place in the St. Louis World's Fair exhibit.
